The Blue Ridge Dinner Theatre will ring in this Christmas season with The Littlest Shepherd: A Musical Retelling of the Birth of Christ by R. Rex Stephenson and music by Emily Rose Tucker.

You know the story. "And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us." Well, most of them went, but they left the littlest shepherd to watch the sheep. What happened then?

The characters the littlest shepherd meets, the obstacles he must overcome, and the gift he is determined to give to Jesus combine in a production that speaks to the glad Christmas message and does so in an uplifting, heart-warming, and, often, humorous way.

Many of your favorite performers will be back for this show including Anna Holman, Emily Rose Tucker, Jody D. Brown, Mike Trochim, R. Rex Stephenson, Willette Thompson, and a couple of surprise actors.

We don't have regular box office hours yet; but we will get an email if you write to brdt@ferrum.edu. We will return the phone messages you leave at 540-365-4335, but it may be a day or two.
Jack Tales

We are currently booking the Jack Tale tour and will be happy to bring your group a Jack Tale show in the spring.

Jack Tales, dramatized by R. Rex Stephenson This touring production features the Appalachian folk hero, Jack, and other characters from our region's folk tales. Each production is different but includes toe-tapping music and innovative staging. Contact Jody or Emily about this one, brdt@ferrum.edu. We'll come to you.
